

Adani Foundation holds village cleanliness drive

■ District Correspondent
GONDIA, Dec 23

WITH AN objective to motivate the villagers to keep their surrounding clean and tidy, Adani Foundation has recently observed cleanliness drive its five-day exposure-cum-training programme at Center of Science and Villages in Wardha. A step further AF also extended contribution for the construction of toilets and made available a pan set and ventilator. They selected 110 houses in the first phase.

Motivational events like drawing, rangoli, essay, slogan, etc. has been organised for the villagers in which they took part enthusiastically. A rally was organised to conclude the programme. Students, villagers and Gram Panchayat members actively participated in it.

Total 45 of the participants were selected and were given away the awards in the function organised in Chikhli village the other day. Sushma Oza, Chief Executive Officer, AF, distributed awards in the presence of Kailash Patle, Sushma Oza, CEO, Adani Foundation, presenting prize to a girl as Vivek Phatak and Arunpratap Singh look on. (Right) Students participating in the cleanliness awareness rally.

Sarpanch and Kulpath Rahangdale, Deputy Sarpanch.

Vivek Phatak, Arunpratap Singh and Bandu Kasar of Adani Power Maharashtra Ltd., were prominently present on the occasion.

Subodh Singh, Project Co-ordinator, emphasized the need of making the village clean and sanitation-free on the lines of Nirmal Gram.

Oza also motivated the villagers to construct toilets under their compound. Dilip Kusoba, Saria Tarekar, Kalpana Harinkede, Sunanda Patle, Santurabai Rahangdale and villagers were also present in good numbers. Kailash Rewalkar conducted the proceedings of the programme. Gram Sevak Bhalawe proposed a vote of thanks.

PHOTO: LEFT TO RIGHT: SUSHMA OZA, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, ADANI FOUNDATION; VIVEK PHATAK, ARUNPRATAP SINGH AND BANDU KASAR OF ADANI POWER MAHARASHTRA LTD.; DEPUTY SARPANCH AND KULPAT RAHANGDALE, SARPANCH AND KULPAT RAHANGDALE, DEPUTY SARPANCH.