

adani™ Adani Foundation organizes Teacher's Training Workshop

Mundra : Adani Foundation organised three days Teachers' Training Workshop at Shantiniketan, Adani Power, Siracha (Mundra) from 18th November to 20th November 2013. Participants were teachers of Adani Vidhyamandir, Bhadrashwar (Kutch), Education Volunteers of Adani Foundation and Balvadi Workers of Mundra Talukas. The workshop was inaugurated by eminent writer Mr. Haresh Dholakiya followed by his key note address. Dr. Bhadrayu Vachhrajani (Director-Education, Adani Foundation), Mr. Arvind Amin (HPC Application Specialist, Intel Corporation, U.S.A.), Mr. Mukesh Saxena (Associate Vice-President of APSEZ, Mundra) and Dr. Ila Vachhrajani (Ret. Principal, Rajkot) were present at inaugural ceremony. All dignitaries including Dr. Vijay Thakkar (Faculty of Education, C.U. Shah University) and Ms. Gopi Shah (Innovative Primary Trainer) were facilitated by memento.

In the first session Dr. Bhadrayu Vachhrajani delivered a speech with technology support on "Meaning of Learning".

Dr. Vijay Thakkar and Ms. Gopi Shah were key faculties for the workshop during their hours long sessions. They focused on various topics like, Classroom Management, Activity based Learning, Teachers Preparedness and Project outside and inside Classroom. It was fully participatory deliberation. Faculties involved the group in different exercises, games and presentations. In the late evening sessions on both the days, participants were involved in interesting Films, Drama, etc.

Principal Dr. K. J. Jose (Adani DAV, Mundra) expressed his experiences with illustrations during validity session. Representatives from the group also expressed their satisfaction and happiness to be part of such unique workshop. Education team of Adani Foundation put great efforts for planning, implementing and guiding the entire workshop.

